Sponsorship Opportunities

The Event

Holyrood's 2nd Annual Public Sector HR Scotland conference brings together professionals from across Scotland and beyond to examine the latest developments, practice and innovation. This year we will address defining concerns around attracting and retaining the right people, focussing on employee engagement and development, before looking at the role of strategy in making the most of your existing workforce.

The Delegates

Join over 120 delegates from HR including:

- HR Service Manager
- HR Business Partner
- Head of People
- Head of Learning and Development
- Recruitment Director
- People Support Manager
- Head of Organisational Development
- Employee Relations Manager
- HR Governance Manager
- Change Management Team Leader

- Employability Officer

The Opportunity

The 2019 Public Sector HR Conference provides our clients and partners the opportunity to not only engage with leading HR professionals but also to educate, inform and engage with public sector HR leaders.
